

Options for social media:

Option 1) Nonprofits are on the frontlines, supporting communities through an affordability crisis, a trade war, and growing polarization. As demand for services rises, it's critical that nonprofits are recognized as key partners in protecting Ontario's future.

We've signed ONN's open letter to Premier Doug Ford, calling on the provincial government to prioritize the nonprofit sector and work with us to strengthen communities. If you're a nonprofit, we encourage you to sign on and help amplify the call for action. Together, we can ensure a stronger, more resilient Ontario.

 Sign the letter today: <https://theonncanada.ca/topics/advocacy/ontario-advocacy/>

Option 2) Nonprofits are essential to strong communities, especially in times of crisis. We've signed the open letter urging Premier Ford to prioritize the sector - join us in taking action. Sign today!  <https://theonncanada.ca/topics/advocacy/ontario-advocacy/>

Option 3) As demand for nonprofit services continues to rise, it's critical that our sector is recognized and supported. [Organization Name] has signed the open letter to Premier Doug Ford, urging the provincial government to work with nonprofits to strengthen communities. Add your voice - sign today. <https://theonncanada.ca/topics/advocacy/ontario-advocacy/> Option 4) ONN is calling on nonprofits across the province to unite by signing an open letter to Premier Doug Ford. The letter highlights the indispensable role nonprofits play in our communities, especially during crises, and emphasizes the need to prioritize the sector in the Plan to Protect Ontario and partner with nonprofits to strengthen our community impact. This is our moment to amplify the power of our sector. Join ONN and many others in making a difference. Sign the letter today and stand with Ontario's nonprofits.

<https://theonncanada.ca/topics/advocacy/ontario-advocacy/>

Social Media Graphics