

NONPROFIT LAW ONTARIO WORKSHOP OPTIONS

Topic	Description	Length	Audience
Introduction to transitioning to Ontario's Not-for-Profit Corporations Act (ONCA)	This webinar gives highlights of what is new in the ONCA, the steps nonprofits need to take to transition to the ONCA, and how NPLO's free resources can help you create ONCA compliant bylaws or revise your current ones.	75-120 minutes	Executive directors or board members of provincially incorporated nonprofits that are not: co-ops, condos, or businesses.
Bring Your Own Bylaws: ONCA transition working session	In this working session, participants will work through their bylaws and letters patent and a special workbook to identify what they might want or need to change in order to comply with ONCA.	4-5 hours (broken into 1 or 2 sessions)	Executive directors or board members of provincially incorporated nonprofits that are not: co-ops, condos, or businesses.
Reading and negotiating funding agreements	In this workshop, we explore common provisions of funding agreements, and how you can work with your funder to create agreements that work for everyone.	60-120 minutes	Executive directors or board members of nonprofits.
Conflicts of interest 101	In this workshop, we explore the obligation of director and officers to disclose and mitigate conflicts of interest.	60-120 minutes	Executive directors or board members of nonprofits.
Removing directors and members	In this workshop, we explore the legal process to follow when removing directors and members in a way that respects their rights.	60-120 minutes	Executive directors or board members of nonprofits.
Board-ED relationships	In this workshop, we explore the different roles and rights of the board and executive director, and how to ensure the rights of each is respected and no one oversteps their bounds.	60-120 minutes	Executive directors or board members of nonprofits.
Incorporating as a nonprofit	Groups are not legally required to incorporate to pursue nonprofit activities. This workshop looks at the rules that apply to unincorporated associations, the choice whether or not to incorporate, and the process for those who choose to incorporate.	60-120 minutes	Grassroots and unincorporated groups concerned about what laws currently apply and considering incorporating.
Applying for charitable status	This session, which may be combined with "incorporating as a nonprofit", gives an overview of the charity application process, common pitfalls in application, and explains some of the key criteria when applying for charitable status.	60-120 minutes	New or established organizations considering applying to be a registered charity.
Legal aspects of governance 101: roles, rights, relationships, and responsibilities	The law is just one of many aspects of good governance. This session looks at some of the key players (members, directors, and officers) in nonprofit corporate governance from a legal point of view. We explore the roles, rights, responsibilities, and relationships of each. Ultimately, the session highlights tough choices in designing governance systems.	60-120 minutes	Nonprofits of all kinds, preferably provincially incorporated, but still largely relevant to unincorporated associations and federally incorporated nonprofits.
